Description	Since 1570, Strasbourg has been deploying its Christmas market around its prestigious Cathedral. The influence of this traditional Christmas Market has only grown in Europe thanks to its tradition of commerce and its spirit of tolerance and humanism, which make its history and its identity. With its 12 Christmas markets, Strasbourg invites you to a tasty walk in the heart of its historic center. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Christkindelsmärik, place Broglie • Le village des Bredle et des vigneron de la Couronne d'or, place d'Austerlitz • Les marchés de Noël, place de la Cathédrale et place du Corbeau • Les marchés thématiques : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Le Carré d'or, place du Temple-neuf - Les saveurs alsaciennes, place des Meuniers - Le comptoir des Rois mages, place Benjamin-Zix • Le marché de Noël du terroir et de l'artisanat, place de la Gare As of mid-November, the Grand Sapin beats the heart of Strasbourg, Place Kléber. It delights hundreds of thousands of visitors, big and small. Every year, it is a new, glittering and colorful creation that invites you to come together in a spirit of sharing and fraternity. Tradition says that in Strasbourg, the inhabitants deposited gifts for the most deprived at the foot of the Grand Sapin. This Tradition is perpetuated, so it is quite naturally around the Grand Sapin that today we find the Village of the Sharing. Tight as the Magi around the cradle of the Sharing, the wooden houses welcome more than 60 charities that invite you to discover their actions and to participate in the common effort of generosity. (Place Kléber) As Christmas approaches, Strasbourg is adorned with its finest attires. The streets, the houses richly decorated shine with thousand fires and a thousand colors. The path of light guides the visitor through the city, like a huge garland stretching towards the Cathedral Christmas is also offered through a rich and varied musical program. Orchestras, choirs, gospels, duets, soloists resonate in the heart of the Cathedral, in the churches and chapels of the city, but also at the foot of the Grand Sapin, Place Kléber.
