Between the lakes of Thun and Brienz, Interlaken has many surprises in store for you. Overlooked by the famous trio of summits (Eiger, Mönch & Jungfrau) this village located in the heart of the Alps is full of shops. Take advantage of your day to taste Swiss specialties, this is the ideal place to eat a Swiss fondue. Stroll through the charming streets of this famous village on your free day. Interlaken is one of the oldest, best-known and most popular summer holiday resorts in Switzerland. The first visitors arrived in the 17th century, and as the means of transport improved with the arrival of the railway, boat services on the lakes and, more recently, the motorway, Interlaken became the main tourist center of the Bernese Oberland. Famed for its breathtaking scenery, take a leisurely stroll through the Höhematte Park in the heart of town, where you'll be rewarded with an unforgettable view of the Jungfrau massif. The two lakes that frame the town invite you to enjoy scenic boat cruises and peaceful lakeside walks—perfect for unwinding and soaking in the alpine atmosphere. Don't forget to look up: Interlaken's skies are often filled with colorful paragliders, creating one of the town's most iconic and photogenic sights. At the end of the afternoon, board the bus to Lucerne and admire the sumptuous Swiss landscapes you will pass through.
